Adjudication of Facts of Parentage

What is an adjudication?

This is a legal process whereby the court makes a decision as to the existence or nonexistence of the parent and child relationship.

This process should only be used if you want to change the father/parent (or mother/parent) from who was listed on the child's original birth certificate.

I did not list the father/parent on my child's birth certificate when it was originally prepared.

You do not have to go to court to add the father/parent. But both the mother/parent and father/parent will have to complete a document to "acknowledge" (establish) a paternal relationship with the child.

Please request our pamphlet entitled "Acknowledgement of Paternity." That pamphlet will provide you with all of the information you need for that process.

Now I want to add the father/parent. How can I do that?

The Acknowledgement of Paternity form must be signed by both parents. If a parent is unavailable, refuses to sign the Acknowledgement of Paternity form, or is deceased, you will need to go to court, and the court will decide (adjudicate) the existence or nonexistence of the parent and child relationship. This pamphlet (Adjudication of Facts of Parentage) provides you with all the information you need for that process.

I listed the father/parent on my child's birth certificate when it was originally prepared.

If you want to change the father/parent from who was listed on your child's original birth certificate, that must be done through the court system. This is referred to as an "adjudication" – the court will decide (adjudicate) the existence or nonexistence of the parent and child relationship. You will have to petition the Superior Court in your county of residence (does not have to be in California).

Now I want to change the father/parent. How can I do that?

We cannot remove the existing father/parent and add the new father/parent on a registered certificate without the court order of adjudication.

The Adjudication of Facts of Parentage (issued by the court) must:

1. Specifically instruct us to remove the existing father/parent if one is listed on the birth certificate.
 2. Add the new father/parent to the birth certificate.
 3. Include the child's date and place of birth as listed on his or her original birth certificate.
 4. If the child's name is being changed, the full new name must be listed in the court order.

How do I get an adjudication from the court?

- We suggest you contact a family law attorney for legal advice on paternity issues. Our staff cannot provide legal advice, nor do we have information about the legal process.
- There are also books available at bookstores or public libraries to help you with the court process.
- You can also access the following website for additional information about the court process: www.courts.ca.gov.

What is the fee to change my child's birth certificate after an adjudication?

- $23 - which includes one Certified Copy of the new birth certificate.
- Additional copies are $25 each.
- Fees should be paid by check or money order payable to CDPH Vital Records. International money orders for out-of-country requests should be payable in U.S. dollars.

After I get the court order, what do I submit to change the father/parent?

- You will need to complete an Application to Amend a Birth Record – Adjudication of Facts of Parentage (VS 21 form).

You must include a certified copy of the Order Adjudicating Parentage, issued by the court that granted the order.
(See next section for explanation of “certified” copy.)

We do not return the court order after the new birth certificate is prepared.
- Although this item is not required it would help our staff if you could include a photocopy of the current birth certificate if you have it (this helps us identify the exact record to be amended).
- Mail the following items to our office at the address on the front of this pamphlet:
 - Completed VS 21 form.
 - $23 fee.
 - Certified copy of the court order.
 - Photocopy of current birth certificate (if you have it).
- If any of the required items are not included, your request will be returned to you for correction.
- For possible future transactions with the Social Security Administration or the Department of Motor Vehicles, you should keep copies of all documents that you submit to our office. Once your child's new birth certificate is prepared, all supporting documents are sealed by our office and are not available to the public.

What is a “certified” copy
of the court order?

1. A “certified” copy of the court order must be a copy of the order that was originally prepared by the court. It cannot be an original printout.

If the court gives you an original printout, please ask them to make a photocopy.

2. The photocopy that the court gives you must have:
 - a. An original court seal.
 - b. A signature (or signature stamp) of the judge.
 - c. A signature (or signature stamp) of the court clerk.

IMPORTANT:

- ✓ The “certified” copy must have an original court seal and a signature (or signature stamp) of the court clerk. It is the original seal and court clerk signature (certification) that make this a “certified” copy.
- ✓ Do not send us a copy where the court seal has been photocopied. The court seal must be an original seal.
- ✓ The court seal and signature must appear on the actual certified copy (either front or back) – and not on a blank sheet of paper.
- ✓ The “FILED / ENDORSED” stamp in the top right corner of the court order is not the court clerk’s certification.
- ✓ You should keep a photocopy of the court order for your own file.

What information can I change with a VS 21 form?

This form can only be used to:

- Change the current parents’ information to that of the court-ordered parents’ information.
- Change the child’s last name to that of the established father/parent’s, if it is so ordered in the court order of adjudication. You should make sure the child’s full name as it appears on the original birth certificate is listed correctly in the court order.

Where can I get the VS 21 form?

The application must be an original form (our office uses a special bond paper). Photocopies are not acceptable. One application form is included if you receive this pamphlet by mail. If you need additional copies of the VS 21 form, or are accessing this pamphlet on our website:

- Order forms electronically at:
<https://apps.cdph.ca.gov/AutoForm2/default.aspx?af=1184>.
Because of the volume of phone calls we receive, the Internet is usually a faster process for our customers than calling our Customer Service Unit.
- Call our Customer Service Unit at (916) 445-2684.
- You can also get the form from the County Recorder or County Health Department in any California county.

How do I complete the VS 21 form?

A sample of what a completed VS 21 form should look like is attached.

PART I:

- Items 1A-1C: Complete the information exactly as it appears on your child's current birth certificate.

Note: If you need a copy of your child's current birth certificate to complete this section, you can get a copy by completing the Application for Certified Copy of Birth Certificate (attached) and submitting the application, notarized Sworn Statement, and $25 fee to our office.

PART II: Must be completed using the information included in the court order for the child's name and father/parent's information. Please make sure the child's full name is listed correctly in the court order.

The Adjudication of Facts of Parentage (issued by the court) must:

1. Specifically instruct us to remove the existing father/parent if one is listed on the birth certificate.
2. Add the new father/parent to the birth certificate.
3. Include the child's date and place of birth as listed on his or her original birth certificate.
4. If the child's name is being changed, the full new name must be listed in the court order.

What makes a
VS 21 form
“acceptable?”

Important Information

Birth certificates are legal documents that must be able to hold up in any court, unchallenged as to their accuracy and reliability. To help us prepare the new birth certificate accurately:

- Every item on the amendment must be completed.
- The amendment form must be an original, not a photocopy.
- We must be able to read the information on the form. It is extremely important that the form be legible. Using a typewriter to complete the form ensures that the information is interpreted clearly.
- If you are not able to type the amendment, it is extremely important that you take the extra time to print very clearly and legibly. Documents that are not legible will be returned to you to complete again.
- Only black ink is acceptable.
- There cannot be any erasures, whiteout, or alterations.

How long will it take to get my child’s new birth certificate?

The processing time for adjudication documents can be located on our website at:

<http://www.cdph.ca.gov/certlic/birthdeathmar/Pages/ProcessingTimes.aspx>.

What happens to my child’s original
birth certificate
after it has been amended by an adjudication?

- When we receive the acceptable documents (and fee), we will seal your child’s original birth certificate and replace the sealed record with a new birth certificate.
- Once the original birth certificate has been sealed, it is available only through a court order (per Health and Safety Code Section 102730).

For possible future transactions with the Social Security Administration or the Department of Motor Vehicles, you should keep copies of all documents that you submit to our office. Once your child’s new birth certificate is prepared, all supporting documents are sealed by our office and are not available to the public.

What if I still have questions?

If you have read this pamphlet thoroughly and still have questions that were not answered, please call our Customer Service Unit at (916) 445-2684. If you are checking the status of your request, please wait until after the processing time has passed before contacting us.
